Statement issued by Kohl's on March 5, 2021:

As we recently disclosed, our business is building momentum and we have a clear strategy to accelerate revenues and profitability. Our recent operating results outperform across key metrics and demonstrate that we are on the right path. The activist investor group's comparisons of 2019 results to expectations for 2021 are nonsensical given a continuing global pandemic. The activist's comments and track record reveal that they are focused on short-term payout at the expense of sustainable success. The Kohl's board of directors and management have successfully positioned our company for a multi-year improvement at the top and bottom line. We reject the activists' short-termism and their attempt to disrupt our momentum at this critical time. We remain open and interested in new ideas that can help us increase value for our company and our shareholders.
